Hello Children,

It is hard to believe that it is 4 weeks since we last saw you in school. It is great that so many of you are keeping in touch with your teachers and with me. Lots of you have been really creative and we are just loving all the pictures you have sent in. I've put a few pictures in so you can see what your friends are doing and maybe spot yourself too!

The first learning packs from your teachers are ready! Go to the 'Virtual home Learning' page on the school website. Your teachers have recorded themselves for you! They will tell you about the week's work.

Remember we only ask you to try your best and if you get stuck you can email your class teacher for help and advice.

Saying of the week:

"The more that you read, the more things you will know. The more you learn, the more places you'll go!"
-- Dr. Seuss

Joke of the week:

How do you say hello to a pizza?

It's slice to meet you

If you've got a good joke please email it to me!

A big well done to Emily for entering a poem to the Kids' Poetry Club and having her recording included in Thursday's episode. You can hear it for yourself here:

(About 10mins into the episode)

We have signed you all up to a website called SUMDOG.

<https://www.sumdog.com/>

Email your class teacher for your username and password.

We can login and see how you're getting on so it'd be great if you can have a go this week.

Happy Birthday Poppy!

If your birthday is coming up let me know and I'll add it to our newsletter

Storytime!

We hope you have seen some of the stories we have recorded for you. They are all on our Vimeo account.

Dear Miss Misiri

How are you? I'm quite enjoying lockdown because it means I can play on my x-box more. Recently we have been going on a lot of walks and we went into a book. Yesterday we did glass painting and I painted a bottle with my name painted on it. Also, a couple of days ago I had a shower in the really bad rain.

On Easter morning I went on my x-box and played with Chester and then my sister came and told me that we were doing an Easter egg hunt. So as quick as I could, I told Chester I had to go and then turned my x-box off. There was 5 or 6 clues and I finished but because I needed to finish my from Samuel game, here is an example of a clue: Snore Snore
Rest your head this clue is hidden under your bed.

I need to go now because my Dad's got to cut my hair for me. Hope he doesn't give me a terrible hairline from Samuel.
